

Circle Dance Holiday in Slovenia with Vesna & Marijan Rudel  June 2017

Slovenian Circle Dance Holiday with Marijan & Vesna Rudel

7-14 June 2017

An opportunity to explore the mountains and lakes of Slovenia as well as enjoy a passion for live music and circle dance with the support of delightful local hosts Vesna and Marijan Rudel who many circle dancers will know from Dance Camp Wales. More information at: www.mandalamusic19.net Vesna and Marijan are experienced and talented Circle Dance Musicians and choreographers who invite you to join them on a week of exploration of their local area near their home town of Velenje.

- The week will be one of fun and relaxation intertwined with learning a variety of beautiful dances to live music with opportunities to learn local songs. You will dance mostly traditional circle dances for the Music and Dancing Programme and also some sacred and other dances. Dances for 2-3 hours a day - 1 hour in the morning and 2 hours in the evening. We will also sing some Slovenian, Balkan and other songs, mostly folk songs. Dances are mostly simple so that anybody could join. We'll lead the program in English. We will dance outside in the grounds of the resort or, if it rains, inside the hotel.

- Based in Topolšica, a spa resort in the mountains (luxury cabins we will rent show above). Includes free use of on-site indoor and outdoor thermal water pools (30-36 degrees Celsius). Sleeping in wooden chalets. Good WiFi network
- Short, inexpensive flight; 90 minute road transfer from Ljubljana airport or 2 hours from Venice
- Choice of excursions to mountains, waterfall and local towns – cost from £500 per person, bookable locally. For further information about the region visit www.slovenia.info
