

A week in Magical Morocco April 9th -16th 2019

A Cultural and Singing Holiday with Vivienne Couch

This is a holiday not to be missed! Enjoy staying in 'La Maison Anglaise', a beautiful, sustainably run guest house in the ancient walled town of Taroudant. Gain a genuine insight into Moroccan culture, away from the principle tourist trails. Please visit www.holidays-with-heart.co.uk and www.cecuc.co.uk/reviews/ to whet your appetite.

Vivienne is an experienced workshop leader whose whole career has been in singing and music. She believes in the magic of singing to lift our spirits, to give us joy and to create community. She will teach heart-warming harmony songs of various styles which will include the whole range of human emotion. The singing experience will enhance what will already be an extraordinary holiday. No special experience or knowledge is needed, just a desire to sing and have fun together.

"I can't tell you how amazing the last week has been, how enjoyable each day proved to be and how uplifted I felt. It was inspiring being in such an interesting location and singing our hearts out on the terrace mornings and evenings and in between! I loved the choice of music and the pace of the week and all the wonderful things that we did. Our excursions were lovely and the food and staff at the guest house marvellous and I couldn't have asked for a better teacher". Lisa

"It was the most memorable week I think I have ever experienced – so spiritual and profound – and that was only the singing part of it. I did so enjoy all the other parts of getting to know some lovely Berber and Moroccan people and parts of a fascinating country. I know I will remember this for ever so thank you so much for all your caring kindness in melding us all together". Jill W

Daily plan - we will sing with the morning sun on the terraced roof top, enjoy sumptuous *vegetarian meals prepared by kind and helpful staff, relax in the sun or take part in a range of excursions and experiences that most tourists never see, and finish each day singing more wonderful harmony together. (*meat or fish available for small supplement. Special diets catered for)

Cost - £520 includes Accommodation for 7 nights in twin/double rooms (singles may be possible for £120 supplement), transfer to and from Agadir airport on the agreed flight, substantial breakfasts, evening meals, 2 excursions, 2 cultural experiences chosen from several, 2 daily singing sessions, and a 'Feast for the Senses' Celebration on the last evening.

Lonely Planet 2017 lists this holiday experience, guest house and staff as a 'Must Visit Recommendation'

"Excellent guides and activities including trekking, Berber village visits, wildlife trips, cookery lessons and visits to the soap-making and bee-keeping co-operatives they support. Day trips to the valley at Afensou in the High Atlas involve walking through olive groves to a swimming hole. On a quiet street, north of Taroudant's central hubbub, this Green Key certified medina house makes a welcoming base run by a brilliant team of locals. As well as nine rooms, there is a kitchen for self-catering, a roof terrace with views of the High and Anti-Atlas Mountains, and a small library. Meals get rave reviews from guests. What really makes this British-owned guest house special is the staff, who help you get to grips with the local culture, whether on their tours or by just pointing you in the right direction".

Not included in the price - Holiday insurance including cancellation and medical cover; inexpensive Easyjet flights to Agadir. The week starts and ends on a Tuesday to take advantage of lower air fares.

"The Moroccan holiday lived up to all expectations and beyond !!!I'm still living in the afterglow. Many, many thanks for making it such a wonderful experience." C

"I found the singing absolutely enjoyable and inspiring. To sing in a group like this was a totally new experience for me and I loved it. I have no technical musical knowledge which I thought might be quite scary in such a week, but you made it so unthreatening and easy to understand". Jane
