

Cultural and Circle Dance Holiday in Morocco

21st – 28th February 2018

Cindy Kelly and Adrian Pointon

Do come and join us to enjoy circle dance, sun, exceptional local healthy food, an exotic culture and environment at an award-winning, comfortable, sustainably-run traditional guest house. www.cecuc.co.uk

Based in Taroudant, an ancient walled market town, La Maison Anglaise has 9 rooms and is supported by 8 English speaking Moroccan staff, experienced in running successful group holidays. The programme will include at least 10 hours of Circle Dance over the week, typically in the evenings, leaving the days free for exploring the fascinating culture with the help of guides, optional activities, lazing in the sun, or shopping at the local souks.

Cindy and Adrian offer a wide range of traditional dances from many cultures and modern choreographies, including their own Celtic ones. Renowned for their enthusiasm and energy, they bring a sense of joy to the dance. Teaching internationally, they combine clear teaching styles with a sense of humour and have the ability to create a more reflective atmosphere in which they enable groups to explore the spiritual aspects of the dance. Cindy has been teaching Sacred Dance/Circle Dance since 1993; Adrian since 1995 -includes Israeli Folk Dance.

"My recent stay at La Maison Anglaise was without doubt the most interesting and unusual holiday I have experienced. The food was excellent - healthy, delicious and plentiful - and the staff were, without exception, efficient, friendly and extremely helpful and informative. All the excursions were real eye-openers into the lives of locals people." Circle Dancer, January 2017

Optional extras include live music and dancing with a local band, trekking, wildlife, crafts, cookery, argan oil massage and several other choices.
