

Singing and Cultural Holiday led by Vivienne Couch

Run by Holidays with Heart at La Maison Anglaise (Taroudant) www.holidays-with-heart.co.uk

31st March – 7th April 2020

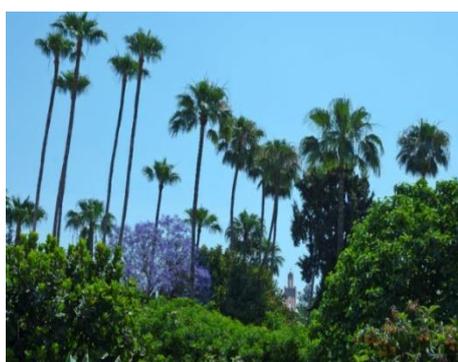

Escape the British weather to enjoy warm sun, an exceptional menu of local healthy food, and an exotic culture and environment. Your beautiful, sustainably run guest house is based in Taroudant, an ancient walled market town little visited by tourists with a relaxed atmosphere and with shopper-friendly souks to which you can be introduced by one of the staff. www.holidays-with-heart.co.uk

What really makes this holiday special is the support and care given by the charming English speaking Moroccan staff who are experienced in running successful group holidays, and have on offer a wide choice of authentic activities

Your Singing Week - Vivienne is an experienced workshop leader whose whole career has been in singing and music. She believes in the magic of singing to lift our spirits, to give us joy and to create community. She will teach heart-warming harmony songs of various styles which will include the whole range of human emotion. She writes “The singing experience will enhance what will already be an extraordinary holiday. No special experience or knowledge is needed, just a desire to sing and have fun together”. “I can't tell you how amazing the last week has been, how enjoyable each day proved to be and how uplifted I felt. It was inspiring being in such an interesting location and singing our hearts out on the terrace mornings and evenings and in between! I loved the choice of music and the pace of the week and all the wonderful things that we did. Our excursions were lovely and the food and staff at the guest house marvelous and I couldn't have asked for a better teacher”. Lisa

“It was the most memorable week I think I have ever experienced – so spiritual and profound – and that was only the singing part of it. I did so enjoy all the other parts of getting to know some lovely Berber and Moroccan people and parts of a fascinating country. I know I will remember this for ever so thank you so much for all your caring kindness in melding us all together”. Jill W

Taroudant nestles in the fertile Souss Valley, the source of an abundance of fruit and vegetables, and lies between contrasting mountain landscapes: the majestic High Atlas and the extraordinary Anti-Atlas (bordering the Sahara). We will explore the landscape and experience the fascinating culture with our delightful, educated and informative guides and drivers. Read the outstanding Trip Advisor Reviews here

"The Moroccan holiday lived up to all expectations and beyond !!I'm still living in the afterglow. Many, many thanks for making it such a wonderful experience." C

"I found the singing absolutely enjoyable and inspiring. To sing in a group like this was a totally new experience for me and I loved it. I have no technical musical knowledge which I thought might be quite scary in such a week, but you made it so unthreatening and easy to understand". Jane
