Enjoying the best winter climate in Morocco due to its southerly setting in the fertile Souss Valley, the source of an abundance of fruit and vegetables, it lies between contrasting mountain landscapes: the majestic High Atlas and the extraordinary Anti-Atlas (bordering the Sahara).

Paul has taught dance since 1992. He is clear in his teaching and likes to teach with some humour. He particularly likes Balkan, Romanian and Greek traditional dances as well as some modern and meditational ones. His choreographies include Ebb And Flow, Twilight, Ever-Flowing Spring, Shadows Of Greece and Circle Mazurka. He is also a singer and musician. NB some dance experience is needed – e.g. Circle Dance, World Dance, or International Folk Dance. Paul's website is at www.paulboizot.co.uk.

The new Ecolodge has a large (8 metres x 8 metres) indoor dance space with sprung floor, and the option to dance outdoors on the roof terrace.

Substantial pre-visit information and support from owner with 25 years' experience of Morocco. A chance to buy beautiful handcrafted items, food and other delights in the souks. Explore the fascinating culture with the help of informative guides or choose to laze in the sun.

Feel secure thanks to the care of the staff, good medical facilities (no compulsory vaccinations), safe water as well as the town being small, relaxed and friendly with few tourists and Morocco's record for safety. Good WiFi and mobile network. Short, inexpensive flight. Compared with Europe, better value for money.

It struck me especially this time how much people who come on these holidays are often dealing with in their personal lives and how important and restorative the whole heart-warming experience is for them. You've created an amazing thing. Leader, Feb 2019

“Holidays with Heart”. The holidays are well named. The staff are so welcoming and made us feel part of the ‘family’. They put their heart and soul into making it such a rich Moroccan experience. I loved trekking in the mountains and passing through villages, following the aqueducts and delighting in the doors and gates, the wildlife - tortoises, storks, hoopoes, lizards, the argan, carob, olive and orange trees. The lovely brown walls that blend into the countryside. The hammam where all veneer was scrubbed away and we were just women together, comfortable in our nakedness. The food such a delight to look at, so colourful and tasty, such a variety of vegetables and fruit flavoured so strikingly. Participant, Feb 2019

* Note. We have a limited number of places at a reduced rate, sleeping in traditional tents in the garden (details available on enquiry). We reserve the right to amend the cost of the holiday if the exchange rate is severely and adversely affected by factors beyond our control such as Brexit. Costs are calculated at least a year in advance and can cater for normal exchange rate fluctuations, but not extreme, sudden changes that may occur in these politically uncertain times. The good news is that the Moroccan Dirham has been much less volatile than the Euro in relation to the GBP!
