

La Maison Anglaise
• Garden Ecolodge •
Holidays with Heart

ADVENTURE IN THE ATLAS AND ON THE ATLANTIC COAST
Photography Holiday with Graham Parish

13-20 October 2020

Join Graham and our excellent staff to explore a variety of different scenery on the Atlantic coast, in the Anti Atlas & High Atlas Mountains and in the 2 fascinating contrasting walled towns of Taroudant & Essaouira.

Tues 13th: Flight from Gatwick lands late morning at Agadir. After picking up your hold bags please get Moroccan dirhams either at an ATM or bank kiosks before leaving the airport. Our driver Rachid will greet you outside the main doors.

Tues 13th : Theme: Atlantic Coast A scenic trip mostly near the rocky and sandy shore with lots of stops en route (some can be visited on the return trip) including option of fishing port of Agadir (272 species landed here!), the view from the kasbah at Agadir; banana villages; scenic beaches along the rocky coast including places famous for surfing, the Cap Rhir lighthouse, and places where the characterful critically endangered (but not shy) Northern Bald Ibis may be seen (the Tamri National Park). Picnic can be supplied for the trip. Cost of extras shown here:

<https://cecu.co.uk/price-list/>

Overnight and dinner at a friendly traditional Riad Chakir in the medina of Essaouira (illustrated below).

Wed 14th: Theme: The Medina, Fishing & the Fortress the scenic fortifications built by the Portuguese and the harbour with its colourful boats, marquetry made from thuya wood, fabrics, the rocky coast and street life. Dinner not included – good choice of eateries by the port or in town. Riad Chakir Essaouira B&B.

Thurs 15th: Theme: Beach and Beyond A chance to explore the area south of the medina along the sandy beach south of town. Things of interest include: wind surfing, kite surfing, Jimi Hendrix's inspiration for "Castles in The Sand", horse and camel trekking, Eleanora's Falcon, a rare bird. Dinner not included – good choice of eateries by the port or in town.

Riad Chakir Essaouira B&B.

Tuesday 16th: 4 hour trip to Taroudant with many photo opportunities (ones missed on the 13th)

Wed 17th: Theme: Relaxing into Moroccan Life in the Ancient Walled Town of Taroudant. Early morning photos on the new roof terrace and after breakfast around the town walls with option of a drink and photography in the old palace, the Palais Salam which has lovely gardens. Option of soup and salad lunch at house or lunch out at Chez Nada (roof top terrace with good views). Afternoon photography in the souks. Option: 5.30 or near Sunset Horse & Carriage taxi ride with Nordine

Thurs 18th: Theme: High Atlas Mountains

To see the best variety of scenery, you will be dropped off to walk, then be picked up at the other end (gorge, ancient olive groves, villages, fields and mountains).

Fri 19th: Theme: Anti Atlas Mountains: Amegour oasis

Interesting variety of different scenes on this route including tufa deposits, charcoal making and more.

Tues 20th: Farewells Leave after breakfast & packing. Under one hour journey to Agadir airport.

Cost includes: bed & breakfast for 7 nights, 5 evening meals (vegetarian meals for the first 4 nights with option of paying a supplement for meat & fish), guiding, 2 excursions into the mountains by minibus from your base in Taroudant, driver/guide on the 3 day/3 night tour & Graham's tuition.

£430 per person plus 2500 Moroccan dirhams (about £200) in twin or double rooms. £140 single supplement.

Cost excludes: travel insurance (required); flights (inexpensive flights may be booked with Easyjet from Gatwick- Agadir provided that you book soon after they are released which will be on 7th November 2019) and tips.

